A Citizens' Guide

What is Florida's Constitution Revision Commission?

The Constitution Revision Commission is a group of 37 people who will review and recommend changes to Florida's Constitution, which provides for the commission in Article XI, Section 2.

Who serves on the CRC?

15

Appointed by the Governor

9

Appointed by the Speaker of the Florida House of Representatives

9

Appointed by the President of the Florida Senate

3

Appointed by the Chief Justice of the Florida Supreme Court

1

The Attorney General of Florida

Why is constitutional revision important?

Changing a constitution has a much more lasting impact than changing state laws. Florida's Constitution Revision Commission is historic in that it occurs only once every 20 years. Those 37 commissioners will ultimately decide on proposed changes to the Florida Constitution that will make it to the ballot for a voter decision in 2018.

Amending Constitutions

Article XI of the Florida Constitution provides for 5 ways to amend the Constitution:

1

The Florida Legislature can propose changes through a Joint Resolution.

2

The Constitution Revision Commission can recommend changes.

3

The people have the power to amend the Florida Constitution through the initiative process.

4

Constitutional conventions are another means of recommending changes.

5

The Taxation and Budget Commission can recommend taxation and budgetary process changes.

Article 5 of the U.S. Constitution provides for 2 ways to amend the U.S. Constitution:

1

Proposal by Congress with a two-thirds majority vote in both the House and Senate.

2

Constitutional convention called for by two-thirds of the state legislatures (never been used).

Did You Know?

Florida has more ways to amend its Constitution than any other state.

What does the Constitution Revision Commission do?

Every 20 years the Commission is appointed to:

Examine the Florida Constitution

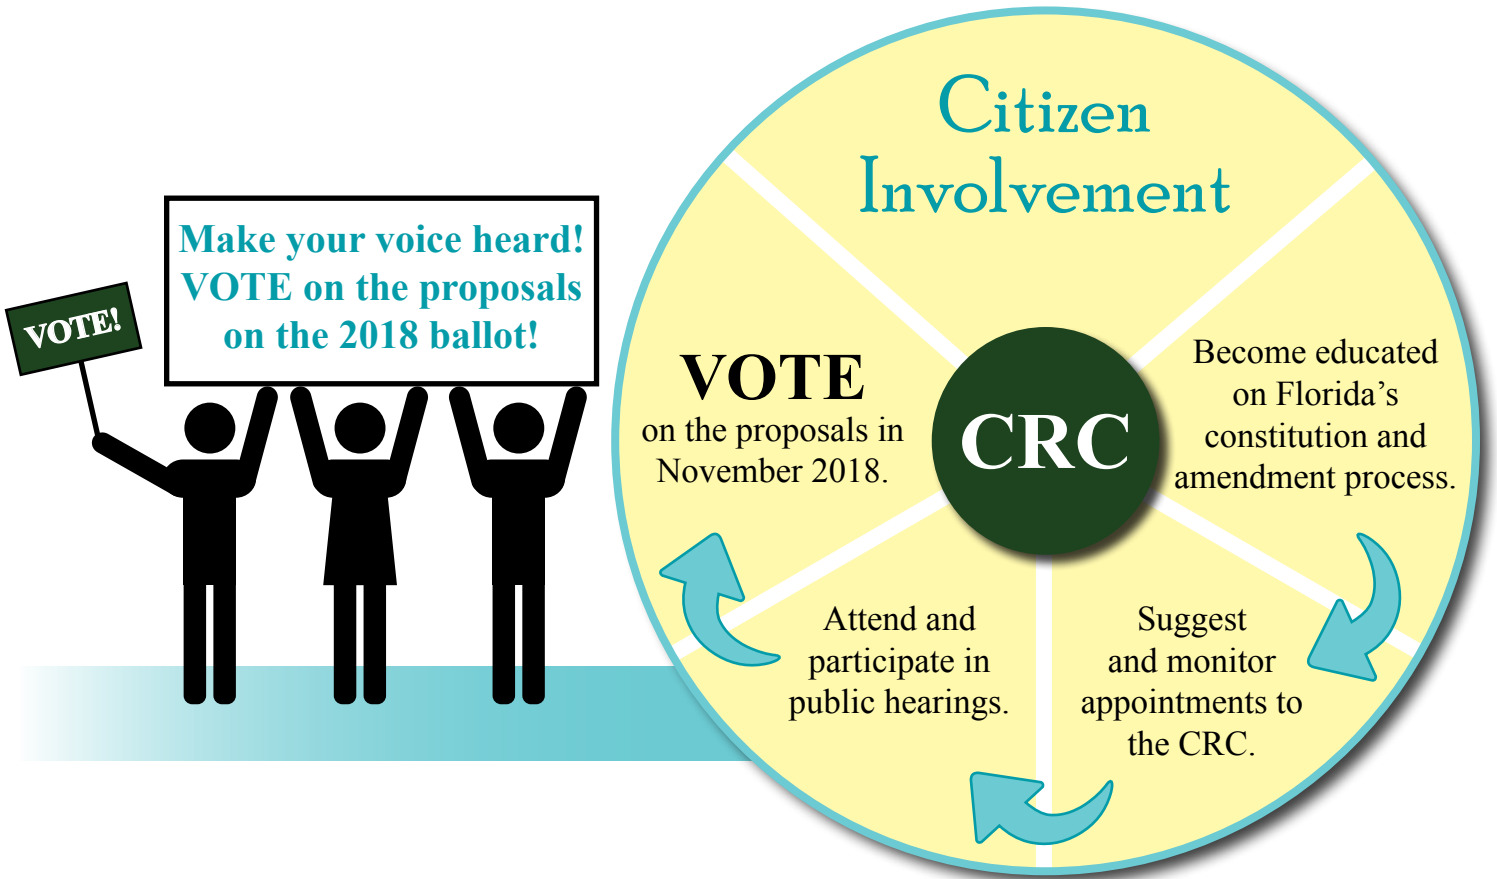

Hold public hearings throughout the state

Recommend changes to the Florida Constitution for voter consideration

The Role of Citizens

Florida's Issues: Then & Now

In 1998, the CRC proposed nine amendments to the Florida Constitution. Florida voters passed eight proposals. What issues might Florida voters face in the future?

PASSED IN 1998

Conservation	Restructuring the state Cabinet
Firearms purchases	Technical revisions
Judicial selection	Basic rights
Election processes	Education

FAILED IN 1998

Local and municipal property tax exemptions and citizen access to local officials

In 1998, only a simple majority vote (more than 50%) was required for an amendment's passage. As of 2006, at least 60% of the vote is required to pass.
